

MSEA 1230

19th C Shan knife with elephant ivory hilt, silver ferrule and silver-clad wooden sheath.

Cost to purchase (declared value) $250.00

Insured value $400.00

MSEA 1232

Small 19th C Shan knife with elephant ivory hilt, Silver ferrule and silver-clad wooden sheath.

Cost to purchase (declared value) $135.00

Insured value $350.00

MSEA 1233

19th C Thai/Lao knife with elephant ivory hilt, silver ferrule and silver-clad wooden sheath.

Cost to purchase (declared value) $96.00

Insured value $325.00

MSEA 1235

Very small Thai priest knife with elephant ivory hilt, small silver ferrule and laminated steel blade in bone sheath with silver mounts.
Comes with red cloth drawstring pouch.

Cost to purchase (declared value) $55.00

Insured value $125.00

B. Other Knives and Swords (14 items)

IND 1038

Early 19th C Indo-Persian karud or choora with elephant or walrus (?) ivory hilt scales in a brass mounted wooden scabbard.

Cost to purchase (declared value) $185.00

Insured value $375.00

INDO 1098

19th C siwar from Aceh with elephant ivory hilt in a translucent scabbard made from albino water buffalo horn.

Cost to purchase (declared value) $128.00

Insured value $250.00

MOR 1117

Late 19th C Tausug kris w/silver wrapped hilt and ivory (? Dugong) pommel in 1960s scabbard decorated with MOP and buffalo horn.
[Pommel might be elephant ivory as there is some suggestion of Schreger lines on the cross-sectional surface.]

Cost to purchase (declared value) $560.00

Insured value $1,250.00

MSEA 1105

Massive 19th C Burmese dha with elephant tusk hilt and silver mounts. Old koftgari work along the spine of the blade and at forte. Sometimes called an “elephant dha”.

Cost to purchase (declared value) $478.89

Insured value $1,200.00

MSEA 1236

19th C Thai/Lao daab having a handle of elephant ivory, a pommel of bone (cap detached), and silver ferrule, accompanied by a wooden scabbard with silver mounts.

Cost to purchase (declared value) $223.50

Insured value $350.00

MSEA 1238

Late 19th C large Lao daab having an elephant tusk hilt and heavy silver mounts to both hilt and scabbard.

Cost to purchase (declared value) $247.89

Insured value $500.00

